The offering for JUNE will be equally divided between BARNABUS FUND & OPEN DOORS. Both these organisations are well known to us and fulfil similar roles, that of giving practical aid, encouragement and support to our persecuted brothers and sisters all over the world. Not only do they give help to those in need, but they are also bringing their plight to the attention of national governments like our own and international bodies e.g. the United Nations. They are both active in raising prayer support for the thousands of believers ,who are not only persecuted for their faith, but are also innocent victims of civil wars, famine, disease and human trafficking. Their vital ministry is very costly in terms of manpower, supplies and finance and the demands upon their services and calls for their aid seem never ending. Despite this, it is utterly amazing what they manage to achieve, but they cannot do it without the prayers and financial support of people like us, whom God has richly blessed.

Thursday Men's Group

Wednesday 13 June Please meet at
Church at 11.00 am for outing to New Lanark.
