Restarts on 10 January

The first missionary offering of the new year is for the work of LUWERO PROJECTS in Uganda, run by our dear friends Gabriel and Deborah and their team of workers. We , at Westwoodhill, are very familiar with the scope of the ministry there and it was good to hear the encouraging report from Ernie Bayton and some of the pupils/staff from Duncanrig Secondary School who visited last October. The pupils, parents and staff raised the amazing sum of £20,000 for the project. Much activity is taking place, including the building of additional class rooms and a new dormitory wing. All very necessary, as of last September, the school had 400 junior and 200 senior pupils on their roll. Like us, Luwero church had a very busy programme over Christmas sharing the wonderful story of the gift of God's Son to be born a Saviour. Gabriel and his team are greatly appreciative of our prayers and partnership with them over many years and assure us of their prayers for us.

HOUSEGROUP UPDATE

It is proposed we have a break in January and picking up in February any of the studies in Psalms that we were unable to finish. In March new material will commence to run in parallel with teaching at the Evening Services.. Housegroup leaders will advise their groups on restart dates.

Please remember the work of the EK Food Bank and donate when possible. Stocks are low on all items. Thank you
