April's Missionary offering is for the ministry of Derek & Heidi Malcolm. Below is what he writes to us as a Church this month:

Thank you Westwoodhill for your continued support and interest in their ministry, both here in Glasgow and in Turkey. My ministry visit to Istanbul went very well in February and our publishing work is continuing to grow which is a great encouragement. We'd be grateful for prayer for my upcoming trip to Turkey in first two weeks of June, God willing. We continue to have freedom to publish Christian literature and Biblical resources there, but the amount of red tape is increasing to such a degree that it is becoming more difficult. Things in the country are very uncertain on a number of levels. Pray that the freedom that believers have will not be further curtailed.

Heidi continues to have some good times with Turkish friends, making new contacts and keeping in touch with others she's known over many years. Its a slow work which also carries disappointments, but she has been encouraged recently as she has been attending a course in a local fellowship with someone who is very interested. Heidi translates for her. Please pray specifically for this person who is seeking.

Derek will be at All Age Service 26 May.
