For this month:

Advent - please take time each week, either in personal study and/or within families, to contemplate this time of Advent, as per study book.

Sunday 20th Our Sunday Club children will participate in this Service and, as always, we look forward to this very much as Christmas fast approaches.

Thursday 24th Christmas Eve Carol Service at 7pm

(More details to follow)

NB The morning services are being live-streamed and can be accessed via our Church Website and clicking on “on-line Church”.

The offering this month is for the work of the JAM TRUST.

The pandemic has stopped a lot of the work of the JAM Club going ahead this year. Back in March the JAM team had three weekends of Easter activities organised to run in the town centre. Suddenly this all had to be cancelled. The weekly JAM Club held in Stewartfield for children has not been able to continue either, though Nagy and Nashwa have tried to keep some contact with those who would come to the Club.

The JAM Club was able to prepare during this time the Christmas Advent calendar on the JAM website. This has been updated as the technology used has changed since it was first launched. (jamtrust.org)

There have been discussions with EK Town Centre Management team on the possibility of building the Nativity Scene in one of the empty units to comply with COVID-19 regulations this Christmas. These have been very positive, but will only go ahead, if in December, the restrictions allow and it can be made safe for people to stop and look.

The Club greatly appreciate the financial support of the Church and would like to thank you for your continued prayer and for all the helpers who make each activity possible.

As we have been encouraged over these difficult months to keep in touch with one another, the Connect team are making arrangements for this to be continued at this special time of year. If you have Christmas cards you would like delivered only to members or regular attenders, please post through new Church

letterbox during week beginning 6th December and no later than 11th December. The cards will then be sorted into bundles and delivered during the following week. Please mark clearly the names of the families to whom it is being sent. Thank you .
